

CLAIMS

I claim:

1. A self-cleaning camera, comprising:

- 5 i. a rotating camera with at least one lens, and
- ii. at least one scoop channel enclosure with an intake and an output, the intake being located on the leading side of the lens, and the output underneath the lens, so that the rotation of the camera causes air to be redirected upward across the face of the lens.

10